

Hot Spots

- Usually located far from plate boundaries
- Created when a plume of magma rises and melts the crust above it.
- As the plate moves, the hot spot remains, creating a series of volcanic islands or volcanoes
- Examples: Hawaiian Islands, Yellowstone

Screen, shaving cream example